Caused By Lightning

Wheat Pool Elevator At Armada Destroyed By Fire

Fire, caused by lightning, completely destroyed the Alberta Wheat Pool elevator at Armada late Friday evening, Aug. 11, and only the combined efforts of the rural fire trucks and crews from Milo, Lomond, Vauxhall and Vulcan kept the adjacent United Grain Growers elevator and two grain buyers' residences from also going up in flames.

A district farmer, watching that evening's electrical storm from a window, saw a lightning bolt strike the top of the Pool elevator and seconds later the roof of the tall building burst into flames.

The Vulcan fire department received the call for help at 11 p.m. and made the trip to Armada in 30 minutes. The Vauxhall fire truck, assisted by farm trucks with water tanks, hauled water from a slough about one-half mile away and the other three fire trucks managed to keep the UGG elevator and the two houses wetted down sufficiently to prevent them catching fire.

The 40,000-bus. capacity Wheat Pool elevator contained about 35,000 bushels of grain at the time of the fire and most of this was a complete loss. Agent Gary Christensen of the Wheat Pool and the UGG agent were both away on holidays at the time of the fire.

No announcement has yet been made by the Wheat Pool concerning the replacement of the elevator.

CHAPERONES of the 90 County of Vulcan students who took part in the recent "Expedition to Expo" were as tired as the students after eight days of sight-seeing and travel, as revealed by these candid photos taken during the plane ride home. Catching up on a little much-needed sleep were (top photo) Doreen and Gary Hill of Vulcan and (bottom photo) Lola Riva-Cambrin of Vulcan and Donna Hagerty of Milo, all County of Vulcan teachers.

Barns Lost In Weekend Fires

It was a busy weekend for Fire Chief Bob Johnston and the Vulcan Rural Fire Protection truck.

In addition to the elevator fire at Armada, Fire Chief Johnston and his crew answered two other calls and in both cases the rural fire truck proved its value by preventing the spread of blazes to houses and other farm buildings.

At 6:00 p.m. on Friday, the truck made a run to the Simon Vanderploeg farm in the Brant district where lightning had struck a hog barn and set it on fire. A few pigs in the barn had been got out safely and the fire fighters' efforts were directed to preventing the spread of the blaze to the house and other buildings. The hog barn was destroyed.

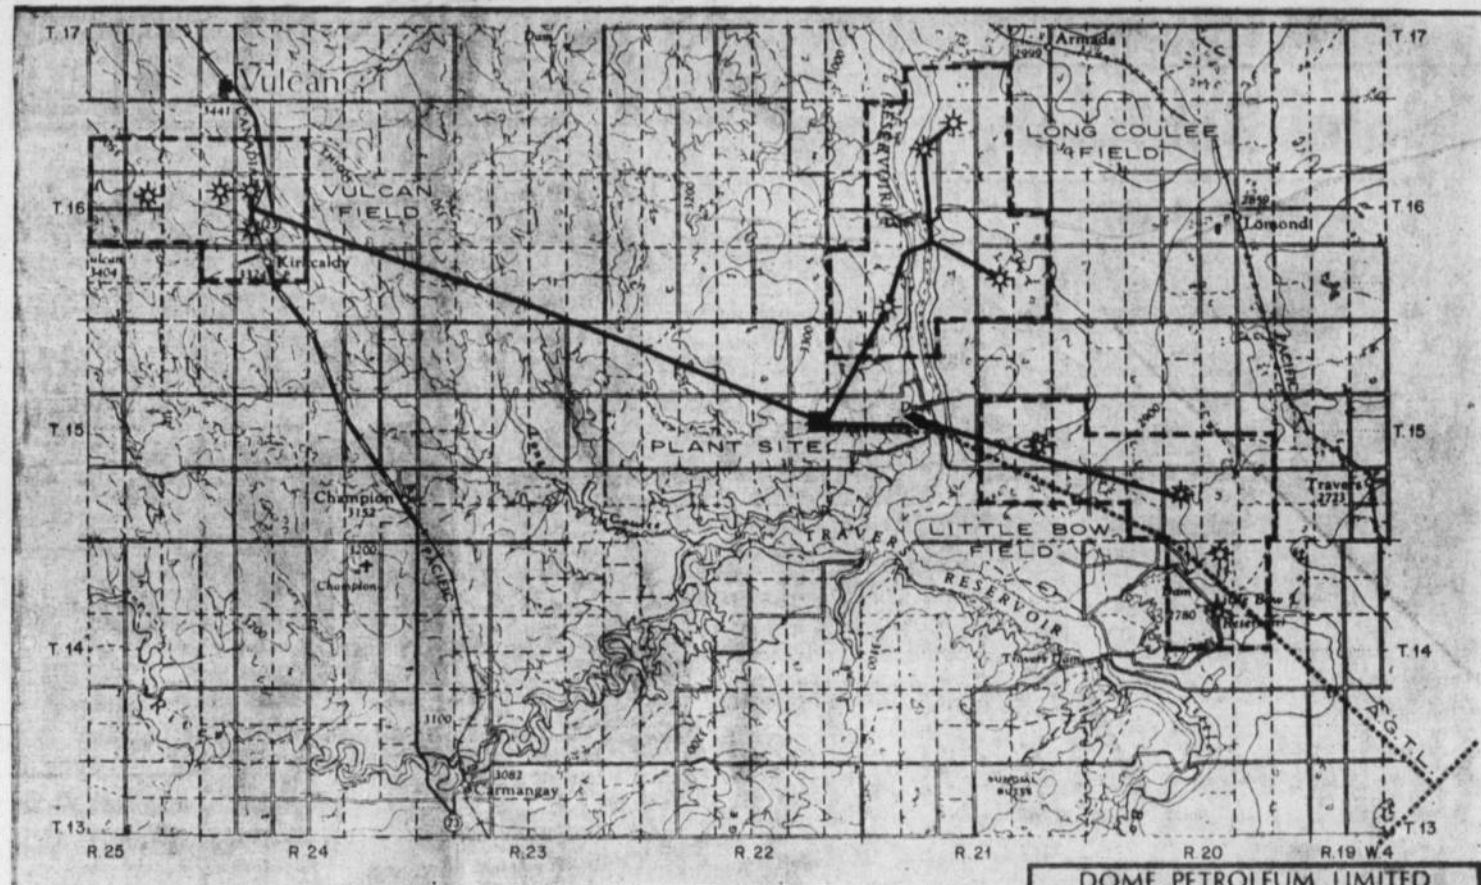

At 1:30 p.m. on Saturday, the rural fire truck and a crew answered a call in the Ensign district to the farm of Mrs. Mary Barton, 9 miles west and 1½ miles north of Vulcan. Here a rubbish fire had apparently got

Dome Petroleum Project

In Operation By January

Gas Treatment Plant Will Gather From Three Fields

Dome Petroleum Limited of Calgary has started construction of a natural gas treatment plant to be located east of Champion and a gathering system that will pick up untreated gas from the gas fields in Vulcan, Lake McGregor and Long Coulee areas. The combined volume of these fields warrants the construction of the plant and necessary gathering lines and the treated gas will be marketed through the gathering system of the Alberta Gas Trunk Lines.

The plant will have an initial capacity of 20 million cubic feet per day and will be capable of removing sulphur, carbon dioxide and otherwise conditioning the gas to make it marketable. Construction of the plant components has started and it is anticipated that the plant will be on stream by January, 1968.

Gas exploration in the Vulcan area has been carried on for a period of over 20 years. During this time a number of gas accumulations have been discovered. Until recently, however, the prospects for utilization of this gas have been poor because the individual gas reserves have been too small in relation to their distance to market to warrant their further development. Moreover, impurities in the gas found in this area require a relatively expensive plant to condition the gas to render it marketable. Needless to say, this situation has had a dampening effect upon the exploration and development of the potential gas throughout this area.

Once Dome Petroleum's new gas treatment plant and gathering systems have been installed, it is reasonable to assume that exploration in this area will be greatly encouraged. Dome officials also told the Advocate, however, that because of the substantial distances involved it is necessary that gathering costs be maintained at a minimum, since the determination of what gas can be utilized depends largely on the gathering costs involved.

Dome Petroleum officials expressed the hope that, over the years, the new plant will make a major contribution to the economic development of the Vulcan area.

Early Champion Homesteader Dies At Warburg, Alta.

Funeral services for Millson Chester Matlock, 72, of Warburg were held Friday at 2:00 p.m. at the Drayton Valley United Church.

Mr. Matlock was born near Colfax, Wash., in 1885. He and his father came to Canada in 1912 and settled in the Champion district. He served in the U.S. army from 1916 to 1919, after which he returned to his homestead.

In 1926, Mr. Matlock moved to Brant, where he helped to build Highway 2 between Okotoks and High River.

In 1927 he went into the oil-field business, freighting equipment between Okotoks and Turner Valley. He worked as a rig builder until 1953, when he moved to Drayton Valley and started a trucking business. He retired in 1961.

He is survived by four sons, Floyd of Edmonton, Louis of Drayton Valley, Robert of Whitehorse and Clarence of Warburg; two daughters, Mrs. Dorothy Wagner of Wetaskiwin and Mrs. Marjorie Cairns of Warburg; 26 grandchildren and eight great-grandchildren. He is also survived by two brothers Orin of Warner and Martin of Champion.

Centennial Day Stories Held Over

A delay in receiving pictures back from the engravers and other unavoidable circumstances has made it necessary to hold over until next week the reports of the centennial celebrations at Carmangay and Champion.

The stories of both these very successful events will be in the next issue of The Advocate.

BIG BUSINESS

Farming in the U.S. engages seven million workers. This exceeds the combined employment in transportation, public utilities, steel and auto industries.

Rye and Barley Harvest Under Way

There have been a few scattered showers but no general rainfall in the County of Vulcan area for almost two months and this circumstance is reflected in the crop week.

Reports of Alberta Wheat Pool agents, who now forecast an average yield of about 20 bushels per acre of wheat.

Other forecast yields are barley would still benefit late-sown crops.

County Students Had Busy Time On Trip To Expo

(By Larry Mumby)

The dream of 90 students became reality on July 25. The event was the departure of 90 County of Vulcan students and four chaperones for a seven-day excursion to Expo 67.

The group travelled by Pacific Western Airlines from Calgary to Dorval airport (Montreal) from where buses transported them to Elmville Student Village.

This student village, 20 miles from Expo, was composed of 10 chalets with two large washrooms. There were kitchen facilities with a grill, refrigerator and tables. The chalets accommodated about 120 students (there were approximately 1,300 students present at a time) and were furnished with bunk beds with springs and foam rubber mattresses.

The cost for eight nights was $57 per student. This also included three meals a day, daily bus service to Expo and admission to Expo.

The group spent five days at Expo, one day at Ottawa, and one day at Quebec City.

On July 28 the group enjoyed a very educational tour of the Canadian capital of Ottawa. The group was first given a tour of the parliament buildings. The limestone and wood carvings and the marvelous paintings reveal the true loyalty of Canadians towards their country. The group viewed all these works in the House of Commons, Senate, and Library. It should be noted that pictures could only be taken in the library. The tour concluded with a climb to the Peace Tower and Room of Remembrance. The Peace Tower offered an excellent view of the whole city of Ottawa. (Eddy, Match factory, Civil Servants offices, Chateau Laurier).

Next week we hope to conclude our memoirs by describing our days at Expo.

The group spent the next few hours touring Rockcliffe Park, government house and several foreign embassies. The day was concluded by a tour of the Canadian War Museum and by a boat trip down the famous Rideau Canal.

On July 31, the group again departed — this time for a scenic tour of Quebec City. Quebec City, built in 1608, is the oldest Canadian city, and it reflects much of the history of early Canada.

As in Ottawa, we began our tour by a view of the legislative buildings. Quebec is the only province with an upper and lower House. The lower house (legislative assembly) reflects the English past while the upper house (senate) reflects the French past.

After the tour of the legislative, our guide took us through a walk down old Quebec. Here we saw many marvelous statues (Cartier, Champlain, Herbert) but perhaps the most beautiful sight was the old buildings. These buildings were composed of shaped stone and were three to four storeys high. The streets were extremely narrow and very winding with extremely steep grades. The group also saw the oldest Canadian church. Built in 1668, Notre Dame des Victoires is a small, beautiful church nestled among the old buildings of Quebec.

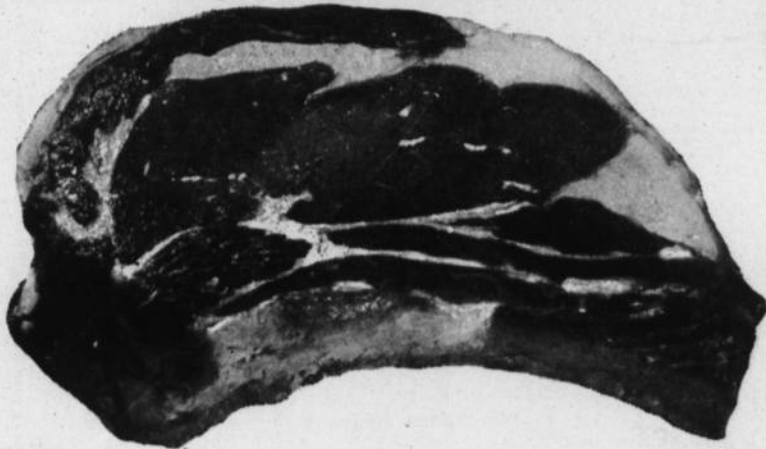

The tour concluded by a jaunt to the Citadel (288 steps up) from where we saw the Plains of Abraham. The Citadel is still used as barracks for the Canadian forces and it is also the resting place of our past governor-general, Georges Vanier.

DINTON

Light rains on August 6 and 7 freshened up crops and gardens, but the relief was temporary. Summer fallow crops have stood up amazingly well through the hot dry weather, but stubble crops have noticeably suffered.

The group who recently flew east, returned Friday, August 4, full of enthusiasm for their trip and the sights to be seen at Expo, though they found the heat and humidity somewhat trying at times. One day the temperature reached 97 degrees. Their trip included a bus tour along the north shore of the St. Lawrence to Quebec City, across the river, returning to Montreal along the south shore. Another outing was a tour of the Montreal docks, and a boat trip on the St. Lawrence. Many pictures were taken which were all looking forward to seeing later in the season.

Mr. and Mrs. Bob Sultor and children have been holidaying at Kelowna.

Mr. and Mrs. Harold Greenfield their family and visiting nephew, Wayne Groat of Vancouver, were Wednesday visitors, August 2, to Drumheller. The highlight of the day for the boys was exploring the caves in the Badlands.

Mrs. Mike Raycraft recently accompanied her daughter, Marilyn, Linda Dixon and Tommy Raycraft to Banff where they visited her daughter, Joanne, who has a summer job there, and enjoyed a few days holiday. Joanne returned with them for a short visit.

We are glad to report that Mrs. Walter Hubarewich is out of the hospital and making good progress convalescing at home. Her three older children are now at home too. Margaret's mother, Mrs. Rod Johnston, is at present caring for the baby.

Mr. and Mrs. Ronnie Bird's 25th wedding anniversary, Saturday, August 5, was a very gala occasion, with open house being held at their home from 4 to 9 p.m., followed by a dance at Dinton Hall. Friends and relatives from far and near were there to personally congratulate them and help them celebrate. Their daughters, Pat and Linda, and son Michael were with them and other close relatives who travelled quite a distance to be present were Ronnie's parents, Mr. and Mrs. R. P. Bird and his brother and sister-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Charlie Bird, all of Cremona. Also present were Ronnie's sister, Edith, Mrs. Chas. Garbutt, and her daughter, Judy, of Victoria, and his sister, Marjorie, Mrs. Cam Campbell and her husband and sons, Ross, Dale and Lloyd, of Edmonton. Other relatives from Cremona who attended were Ronnie's cousin, Doug Bird and Mrs. Bird, and his cousin Lionel Bird, Mrs. Bird and their family. 150 guests signed the visitor's book. Ronnie and Margaret received many beautiful gifts and cards, and the best wishes of the community are extended for many more happy anniversaries.

In Red Deer on August 12, to attend the wedding of Bill McDonald of Okotoks to Penny Munn of Delburne, were quite a number of the groom's relatives from this area — Mr. and Mrs. Ken Gillanders, Mr. and Mrs. Stan Gillanders, John Gillanders, Mr. and Mrs. Albert Brausse, Mr. and Mrs. Glen Laycraft, Mr. and Mrs. Terry Laycraft, Gerry Gillanders, Ricky Laycraft, Margaret Anne Laycraft, Mr. and Mrs. David Gillanders and Mr. and Mrs. George Gillanders. The groom is the elder son of Mr. and Mrs. Allan MacDonald (nee Edna Gillanders).

Mr. and Mrs. Herb McWilliam have received word of the safe arrival in Holland of their daughter, Sheryl, her friend Anne Van Roon, and Mrs. Van Roon, Anne's mother of Lethbridge. They will be staying at the home of Mrs. Van Roon's mother in the city of Zwijndrecht for a month. Sheryl says of her first flight which was via the polar route that she now knows where all the clouds were this summer. The scenery beneath them was for the most part just spotted through the cloud cover. Their only stop down was at Frobisher Bay where there didn't seem to be any night. Crossing the Atlantic, they travelled over vast fields of ice and snow. Scotland was glimpsed briefly through the clouds. The flight from Calgary to Amsterdam was made in 15 hours. Anne's uncle has taken them on several long drives. Sheryl says the country is very beautiful, the people very friendly and hospitable, and completely modern in dress. The streets of Zwijndrecht are wide and paved with what appears to be brick tile. They are divided in half, one side for pedestrians and the other for motor cycles, a very popular form of transportation. There is one theatre where English and American films are shown and one radio station which broadcasts in English so Sheryl feels in touch with the world. She has already learned quite a number of words in Dutch, and would like to have a working knowledge of the language (and probably will) before she returns home.

Brent and Darren Gillanders were week end visitors with their grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Wakeford.

PAPER APPAREL

The build-up continues in both ready-to-wear and yardage. CAUTION: — be sure to read the label. The paper goods should be treated for fire resistance. Secondly, paper goods are not meant to be washed. However, if one should wash the paper apparel, the fire-resistant properties are lost. Be safe, read the label, and heed its advice.

Someone I know picked up paper yard goods at Great Falls several weeks ago. She paid $1 a square yard for it. It came in six or so different patterns all at the same price. The tag read:

75% Non-Woven Cellulose

25% Dacron Polyester

* Disposable

* Do not Wash or Dry Clean

* Flame retarded. Washing or dry cleaning takes out the flame retardation.

* The paper dress will give you quite a few wearings or usings as it is surprisingly sturdy for paper. This is a special paper made for ready-to-wear and home furnishings use and is not as fragile as stationery store papers.

SEWING ON PAPER

Commonly called paper, these fabrics are really a new nonwoven cellulose. Although the fabric is considered "disposable," it will last through several gentle wearings.

Paper is easy to handle. The garment is almost half-finished by cutting. Select only a simple, loose fitting design like a baby tent or A-line skimmer with few seams or details. Short, flared beach cover-ups are fun to make in paper.

Stitch the paper fabric with mercerized cotton thread, 10-12 stitches to the inch. Use plain seams. Press seams open using a dry iron at the synthetic setting. Steam may pucker the paper fabric.

Insert zipper as in fabric. Do not machine baste the seam together however, as the stitches cut the paper when removed. You may pin the zipper in place before stitching.

Facings are not used to finish neck and armhole. Instead, the edges are bound to prevent tearing. First, trim the neck and armhole edges to the seamline. Select a matching or contrasting double fold bias tape. Slip the tape over the edge to be bound with the wider part of the tape on the wrong side, the narrower part on the right side. Pin at 2-inch intervals to hold the tape in place. Topstitch close to the open edge of the tape. In one simple process the tape is securely applied.

Hems are also not necessary. Cut off the lower edges at hemline and the garment is finished. If you prefer, turn the hem edge up ¼ inch and machine stitch close to the edge.

By the way, short paper evening dresses are now showing in Calgary at the bigger department stores, featuring a gold, bronze or gold metallic finish. Cost: approximately $25. Styles—modified tent styles with sequin trim at neckline or hemline on some models.

two best beers
in the house.

This is the other.

Number One!

Number One!

Come now... just how many "best" beers can there be? Well, most of our customers think there's only one. Some say it's our bold, brawny Lethbridge Lager. Others contend it's Lethbridge Pilsner our traditional beer, naturally-aged the old-fashioned way. What do we think? Well, both are quality brewed, and we don't want to get caught in the middle of an argument like that. That's why we say that Lethbridge Lager and Lethbridge Pilsner are the two best beers in the house.

The two best beers in the house!

Combine Field Day: — Earlier Swathing Dates:

Last week we took part in a Harvesting Field Day. One of the speakers who were to have been there was S. Yelland, Supervisor of Cereal and Oilseed Crops for the Alberta Department of Agriculture. However he sent the following comments:

"Workers over the years have demonstrated that cereals and rapeseed can be swathed earlier than is the present custom. Leaving crops stand longer than is absolutely necessary exposes them to loss damage from winds, rain, hail, weathering and natural shelling and breaking.

Malting Barley:

There is agreement in Lacombe and Swift Current work and elsewhere to support the recommendation of swathing malting barley at the early dough stage at 35 to 40 per cent moisture and certainly not later than where the greenest portions are 30 to 35 per cent moisture. At 40 per cent moisture the kernels have attained their full plumpness and will add insignificant amounts of extract. It can be safely stored when threshed at 14.5 per cent moisture.

Fall Rye

Fall rye can and should be swathed to avoid excess shelling and this should be done at a moisture content of 40 to 45 per cent. At this stage, kernels will be in their late milk or early dough stage — normally, at least ten or eleven days earlier than the crop would be fit for straight combining.

Workers have found no effect on bushel weight or yield if swathing is started at 35 per cent moisture level, which is the dough stage. Losses have been experienced through lodging and shelling where left to stand longer. This will depend on the variety and conditions. Rodney oats are particularly subject to shelling.

Wheat:

Wheat should be swathed when the green tinge on the kernel is replaced by yellow coloring. This stage is the firm dough stage where the kernel can be crushed between the finger and thumb. The moisture will run between 25 and 38 per cent. In all the tests over a number of years, no loss was experienced when moisture was at the 38 per cent level. In a variety such as Selkirk loss through shelling can be experienced if left past this stage. Newer varieties are more resistant to shelling.

Rapeseed:

Rapeseed is a crop that may be difficult to judge maturity without frequently breaking pods and examining seed colour. Swathing should be done early enough to prevent excess shelling, but late enough to obtain maximum quality and quantity of oil. This stage is when the seed is brown even though the pods may be green.
